The United States of America, by and through its counsel, Karen P. Hewitt, United States Attorney, and Faith A. Devine, Assistant United States Attorney, hereby files its response to Defendant David C. Jacquot's Motion to Modify the Conditions of Pre-Trial Release.

On August 6, 2008, Defendant filed a motion seeking to modify the conditions of his pre-trial release to allow him to possess firearms. Defendant cites Colombia v. Heller 554 U.S. ___, 128 S.Ct. 2783 (2008) which found that a statute barring handguns in the home violated the Second Amendment. The Government has conferred with Pre-Trial Services about Defendant's request to be allowed to possess firearms while on supervised release. Pre-Trial Services' position is that Columbia v. Heller does not apply to this case and that the court is authorized under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(b)(8) to impose as a condition of pre-trial release that defendant not possess firearms. Pre-Trial Services further advised

1 that this is a standard condition for all defendants who are on supervision and that one of the reasons
2 for imposing the condition is the safety of the Pre-Trial Services Officer. These officers do not carry
3 weapons and are required to visit the residences of defendants on supervised release. For safety reasons,
4 they do not want defendants to be armed. The Government concurs with the position of Pre-Trial
5 Services.

6 DATED: August 29, 2008

Respectfully submitted,

7 KAREN P. HEWITT
